Optimizing Content

Use targeted keywords in your content:

£ Add to your page title at least once.

£ Add to content in HTML text at least twice

£ The first sentence is important.

£ At least once in your header tag.

£ In your URL if possible. Not a priority!

£ Meta description is your call to action.

OnaBags.com

The screenshot shows a Mozilla Firefox browser window displaying the OnaBags.com website. The address bar shows the URL: www.onabags.com/store/messengers-and-backpacks/the-union-street.html?color=ranger-tan. The website header includes the Ona logo with the tagline "fine camera bags + accessories" and navigation links for "ABOUT | SHOP | CONTACT | PRESS | BLOG". A secondary navigation bar highlights "Messengers + Backpacks" and includes a "FREE SHIPPING on orders of $100+" offer. The main product is "The Union Street" camera and laptop bag, priced at $279. The bag is shown in a large image on the left. To the right of the image, there are social media sharing buttons for Facebook (460 likes), Twitter (11 shares), and Pinterest (21 pins). Below the sharing buttons is a descriptive text block: "Described by Engadget (2010) as '...well-built, well-designed and downright drool-worthy,' the Union Street is a sleek alternative to the ubiquitous, boxy camera bag we know all too well. Made with fine cotton canvas that's been infused with wax to enhance its strength and durability, the Union Street camera bag is designed to hold everything you need for a day on the go – your DSLR, a 15" laptop, up to 3 lenses or small accessories, and your personal items. The interior is lined with soft..."
